Dear Mr. Dulles,

I have been here in Washington working on my senior Honors Thesis for Harvard. I decided to write on Adam Thack Bristol during the period he was American High Commissioner in Constantinople. In reading his war diaries I found that you were also there as his first secretary. I mentioned this to Mr. Reist this past week end and he gave me his card to you, and suggested I write to see whether if you had a few minutes to spare sometime I might come in and speak with you. Do you think there is any possibility of this? I realize that you are probably too busy, but I certainly would appreciate it if you found the time. I shall be here in Washington until the 10th of September. As I live in New York, I could come down anytime that was convenient for you after that date.

Looking forward to seeing you.

Yours sincerely,

Robert H. Eldridge
